

HUNTINGDON AREA HIGH SCHOOL

As we, the class of nineteen-hundred and seventy six, leave these halls, it will be with a deep feeling of sadness and regret. It is, however, the book of life that turns its page to summon us into adulthood.

The spirit that has been so much a part of our class will now be a silence in the halls of H.A.H.S. But, it is that spirit that is the part of us we have today that will always be with us tomorrow.

Within these pages are contained the triumphs and the defeats, the laughter and the tears, and all the memories that we as a class have made. And now it is with great pride that we present to you—our Argus.

The Coach

George Weaver

As we, the class of this bicentennial year, reminisce about the years spent at HAHS, we recall many people and moments. Among these many people, there is one man who stands out—George Weaver, coach, teacher, and to many of us—friend.

None will forget the years of devotion and the hours of work Mr. Weaver has given "his boys" and our community. His successful records will long remain in the memories of all fans, not only as ones of wins and losses, but as ones evidencing the quality of play and sportsmanship that he has endeavored to build in all his teams.

During his many years of coaching, including 19 years of football and 24 years of basketball, he was instrumental in developing not only boys' sports programs, but girls' athletics as well.

George N. Weaver has gained the respect and admiration of his players, the school, and the people of the town for his hard work and sincere efforts. Those who have been fortunate enough to have had a close association with Coach Weaver realize the special kind of friendship he can offer.

Because of his outstanding service to this school and its students, we, the class of nineteen hundred and seventy-six, proudly dedicate our ARGUS to George N. Weaver.

'76 CLASS OFFICERS

There have been many days in our past few school years that we have seen gone by; impressions that will last a life time. For we have come to know many beautiful people and have experienced many situations since we came together as a class back in seventh grade. If we sit down and think about it, we have spent one third of our lives with the people of our class, definitely a very long time. It can never be dismissed that we are in a sense, a family.

Yet as in most families there comes a time when the young members of the family must leave their loved ones they have grown up with in search for answers of their own, and now we must also part, looking for horizens that shall truly set us free.

It will certainly be hard to leave no matter what bad things you may have experienced here. You will miss it in some particular way, if you are totally honest with yourself, for it has been a part of your life.

With this in mind, and on behalf of all those we represent in our class, we would like to thank the people, who besides our parents and friends, have helped us along the way, and—they are the teachers. The ones we've met that have played a big part in inspiring us, transcending our dreams to the goals we have set out to accomplish, and providing an air of friendship to help support us. These qualities may not be clear to us now, but time has a way of letting things fall into prospective. A teacher is the most important person in our society. It is through education that man's ignorance is stamped out. May we hope that there are always good teachers available for our children as we have had.

Finally before we close, there are those who worked very hard to piece together some remains of what we are leaving behind, and that is in a form of a book, and that thanks should go to the people who worked on the Argus. It is impossible to put everything in, for everyone has their own impression of what the most important should be. Yet is it is there, as a constant reminder, something that even the mere touch of brings back a memory.

Now it is time to say good-bye, but good-byes are not forever, if we practice the old adage, "Good friends keep in touch."

Yours truly,

Jeff Bomboy Howard Strayer Gayle Streightiff Bob Banks

CLASS HISTORY

As class historian, it is my duty to try to recall the main events that have occured during the four years of life that the Class of 1976 has spent in this high school.

In the fall of 1972, we first entered the halls of HAHS, hearing nothing but "greenie" that whole first day. We were soon into the swing of high school life, but we also learned we had many new responsibilities. The first of these was to elect class officers. The president was Bobby Reiners; vice-president, Lu Ann Conlon; secretary Karen Mansberger; treasurer, Lu Ann Fyock; and historian, Paul DeForrest. Another duty was the annual freshman magazine drive, in which oue our class was very successful. We had to work hard our freshman year and as we watched our first move-up day, we knew our class would become soon closer yet.

Summer passed by and we were now proud sophomores. It was now our turn to yell "greenie," and we tried to convince the freshman that there really was an elevator and that the gym was on the third floor. Again our first duty was to elect class officers. Jenny Heine was our new president, Bob Reiners was the vicepresident, the secretary was Barb Weaverling, and the treasurer Gayle Streightiff. The work this year was a little easier and we had the chance to get involved in other activities. Being involved in all the classes, pep rallies, school programs, not to mention always supporting our mighty Bearcats and Kittens, caused this year to be a little quicker, but still not fast enough for us to ever forget the night on Flagpole Hill. In May of 1974, we were excited and honored to become upperclassmen at HAHS.

As our junior year began, we realized that our last two years in high school would determine what we would be doing the rest of our lives. Many important decisions were to be made. The class officers this year were Howard Strayer, president; LuAnn Conlon, vice-president; Gayle Streightiff, secretary; and Sue Wawrose, treasurer. We found this year to be our most difficult scholastically, so we had to work extra hard. The toughest decision for the girls during this year was to figure out what color of stone they would get for their class rings. Our biggest project of our junior year was to plan a prom for our Seniors. We decided to use "Star Dust" as our theme and we put in many long hours decorating the gym. Just seeing all your friends dressed up in all these funny clothes made all that work worthwhile. One event we didn't look forward to as juniors was taking our college boards, thinking that these scores could have a big affect on our days to come. With all of these things happening our junior year zoomed by and once again it was time to move up. Our class sat with mixed emotions during this ceremony, because even though we were to become mighty seniors, good friends were leaving us and we knew that in just one more year our hearts would be as troubled as the ones of the class leaving now.

At last our senior year was here. We hoped it would go slowly even though our hearts told us it wouldn't. We knew that everything we had strived for would come to an end in a few short months so we tried to live every moment to its fullest. For our final year, the class officers chosen were Howard Strayer, president; Jeff Bomboy, vice-president Gayle Streightiff, secretary; and Bob Banks, treasurer. We didn't have too much hard work to do as seniors so we spent most of our time getting in trouble, planning homecoming, thinking about our class party, and preparing for our move-up day. Also this was the year when the prom was presented to us. In the spring we were kept busy be getting measured for our caps and gowns, mailing announcements and rehearsing for commencement. "Times of Your Life" was chosen as our class song and as we walked up the aisle for the very last time hearing Pomp and Circumstance, we knew that soon we would have nothing left of these wonderful days except memories. But we also knew that these memories would remain clear and unstained in our hearts forever.

Reach back for the joy and the sorrow, put them away in your mind, for mem'ries are times that you borrow to spend when you get to tomorrow.

Huntingdon Area High School students were privileged and happy to have a Rotary Foundation Exchange Student, Luiz Roberto de Oliveira Campagnon. Beto left on January 3, for his home in Sao Paulo, Brazil, but the memories he left behind assure him a place in the hearts of H.A.H.S. Students. Beto enjoyed his stay at H.A.H.S. and found all the people very friendly. He especially liked the enthusiasm showed toward sports and the strong school spirit. Beto loved watching football games, and thought pep rellies were a lot of fun.

Beto experienced some new situations that he particularly enjoyed. He had never seen the changing of the seasons and found it delightful. Fall was his favorite, but he also loved the way that people seemed "to come to life again" after the winter with the coming of spring. In the food line, Beto loved cheese cake which he had never tasted before. He also liked "American spaghetti." Beto learned to water ski and really enjoyed it. He had the thrill of shaking hands with President Ford, during a Washington visit sponsored by Valley Rural Electric

Beto said that he will miss the United States, and he expressed his deep appreciation to his three families, the Cipars, the Bowmans, and the Niers. Summing up his year Beto said, "I had a wonderful year, I met so many nice people, and learned a lot about life."

Students could take any course that did not require a prerequisite. Some of the courses taken by Huntingdon students were French, Spanish, German, chemistry, psychology, and harmony and counterpoint.

Arsenic and Old Lace is a comedy written in three acts by Joseph Kesselring in 1941. It has gained immense popularity over the years, been produced into a full length movie, and is considered as one of the better comical plays written for the theater in the twentieth century.

It was presented by the class of '76 in the high school auditorium on two nights, March 18, 19, under the direction of Mr. Rick Lombard (drama instructor).

The entire action of the play takes place in the living room of the Brewster home in Brooklyn.

The play centers around two elderly sisters (Abby and Martha) who poisen, for the sake of mercy, old lonely men who came there looking for lodging. They have Teddy, their nephew who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt and that the bodies are yellow fever victims, bury the bodies in the Panama Canal (the cellar).

Their nephew Mortimer stumbles upon their secret and a body that Abby has hidden in the windowseat. He becomes very nervous and worried and wants to protect the aunts from the police. In addition, he must try to hide the body from his fiance, Elaine.

The plot becomes more funny and confusing when Mortimer's brother Johnathan, who is a psychotic killer and his side kick Dr. Einstein who is a plastic surgeon, show up. They have a dead body with them, and they also stumble upon the aunts' secret.

Drum Major Frank Huhn

The H.A.H.S. Marching Bearcat Band, under the direction of Mr. William G. Croissant, started their season with lots of hard work at the annual summer band camp.

The band was led by drum major Frank Huhn, head majorette Gayle Strieghtiff, and color guard captain Cindy Houp.

The Bearcat Band could be seen at football games and pep rallies doing percision drills and playing snappy music to cheer the Bearcats to victory.

The band was also seen marching in many parades throughout the season, bringing great honor an themselves and the school when they captured first palce at the Lewistown Firemans Parade and the Mt. Union Halloween Parade.

In all, the Huntingdon Area Marching Bearcat Band had a very successful and rewarding season.

The first ARGUS was published in 1916 "for the senior's enjoyment and the delight of our friends." The total cost was 25¢. It was the aim of the editors then and now to recall to each of you in the years to come the memories of your high school years.

of his eyes were awake at all times.

Just as the eyes of Argus are always looking, our ARGUS looks into every aspect of school life.

On May 23, 1975, the gym was transformed into a spring evening complete with music, moonbeams, and "STARDUST." The magic of the evening left pleasant memories long to be cherished. Members of the queen's court were Cindy Irwin, Diana Mark, Sharon Ostrander and Julia Suba. The climax of the event was the crowning of queen Kathy Cella, by junior class president; Howard Strayer.

The 1975-76 Newsreal Staff under Miss Sue Lang's advisory, produced four successful issues this year.

The Editors and reporters of the staff went to work every couple of months gathering stories to publish for our paper.

A lot of hard work and meeting all deadlines go into making H.A.H.S's Newsreal!

A victory is more appreciated when you know you have done the very best you can do.

HOMECOMING 1975-76

Homecoming week at Huntingdon High School was a week of much excitement and anticipation. On October 3, a beautiful, brisk fall evening, fans and alumni filled the stands at War Vets Field for the homecoming ceremonies.

Members of the court were LuAnn Conlon escorted by Fred Walker, Jenny Heine escorted by Bill Greene, Cathy Porcelli escorted by Cris Edwards, and Deb Smucker escorted by Tim Henry.

Emotions were running high as the girls paraded across the field to the moving tunes of the band. As the suspense reached the unbearable stage, Margie Kyper was crowned the 1975-76 Homecoming Queen by last year's queen, Beth Regitz. Margie was escorted by Paul Deforrest.

This year's H.A.H.S. Cheerleaders, under the direction of Miss Susan Lang, showed great enthusiasm and Bearcat Spitit. Along with the regular duties of supporting the Football, Wrestling, and Basketball Squads, they cheered at the Girl's basketball games as well. They traveled to Tyrone, to the playoffs for the championship against Hollidaysburg, once again to support the Kittens.

There are many responsibilities that go along with being a Cheerleader. As representatives of this high school, they must at all times adhere to the strict cheerleader's code, and must attend all practices. The Bearcat was responsible for all football games, and all other home events.

When asked how she felt, Miss Lang replied, "This was really a new experience for me. There were so many moments, good and bad. The job was made so much easier for my by the ever needed support of Kim Sergeant, Varsity Captain and Co-Captain LuAnn Conlon. It was also a pleasure to have worked with Sue Brown, Captain and Sue Rudy, Co-Captain of the Junior Varsity squad."

Miss Lang is looking forward to working with the girls again next year, and would like to thank all of the girls for their hard work and endurance.

Dear Miss Lang,

It is hard for us to express the feelings we have for you. In the past year, you have become more than just an advisor, you have become a friend. As an advisor, you lent us your time; and as a friend, you lent us your ears. You were always there when we needed you—to give us understanding, encouragement, and support. Through your confidence in us, we have gained confidence in ourselves. You have earned our complete trust and respect. You have filled our senior year with many fond memories. We hope that you will never forget us, for we will forever hold a special place in our hearts

With all our love,

HOCKEY

Enthusiasm and hard work were the keys to the successful season of the girl's field hockey team. Led by six mighty seniors: Laura Holmes, Lou Ann Isenberg, Ruth Isett, Susan Scialabba (Co-captain), Lynn Stepanian (Co-captain), and Susan Wawrose, the girls boasted an impressive 4-2-2 season. Bellwood proved to be the fiercest rival and a 4-0 win over Grier helped to boast morale. The six returning letterwomen: Laura Holmes, Lynn Stepanian, Sue Wawrose, Su Scialabba, Lou Ann Isenberg, and Melinda Hanks used their experience to help make the team second in the league.

The Girl's Basketball team had an impressive season this year with a final record of 10 wins and 1 loss. They suffered their only defeat of the season at the hands of the Tigers from Hollidaysburg in their first game. Even so, under the excellent coaching ability of Betsy Capone, the mighty Kitten team bounced right back in the remaining games due to the skilled shooting performances of junior Brenda Geissinger and Paula King along with Chris Brown and her superior ball handling ability on both offense and defense.

The Kittens should have another successful season next year with the return of seven lettermen.

Huntingdon Bearcats, under Coach George Weaver, gave their 20 year veteran coach a fine last season with a 12-9 record.

This years team had a chance at the Mt. League Championship, but didn't quite get everything together.

The Bearcat lettermen included senior Tim Henry and juniors Bill Carles, Dave Aurand, Scott Holland, Ron McGlaughlin, Scott Nier, Donnie Steele, and Greg Harbaugh.

The Cats had a lot of tough games this season with hard wins over Philipsburg and Hollidaysburg, both in overtime.

Coach Weaver commented, "I feel this team has great potential, but we couldn't get much balance. I think we'll have a real good team next year."

With losing only one starter and having 7 returning lettermen, next year's team could be the potential league champ.

Jr. High Footall

Under the strong coaching ability of Ed Hammers and assistant coaches Steve Jackson and Chuck Hoover, the Junior High Football team compiled an impressive record of three wins and four losses. Although the 'Little Cats' suffered four defeats, they showed determination and pride in all their games.

Those long morning classes

Lunchtime

See ya later!

Mr. Robert Holmes, Principal

As we are in the midst of the Bicentennial activities, I believe it is fitting to wish the Class of 1976 the very best for the beginning of our next two hundred years. I consider this Class to be most fortunate for you are living in an exciting period of our Nation's history. Therefore, as you the Class of 1976 commence your post-high school years, I want to encourage each of you to look to the future with anticipation and expectancy. Your generation and others to follow must forge ahead into similar uncertainties that those of 1776 encountered. I am sure that our forefathers were able to accomplish the task through sacrifice, determination, and much prayer; and I believe that our future will be bright if we continue to do the same.

We have had an excellent year, and I wish to thank each of you for making it possible. As in the past, our faculty has done an excellent job in preparing you for future goals, and I am certainly grateful to them for this dedicated effort.

May God bless each member of the Class of 1976 as you look to the future. May you consider each day as the Psalmist of Old when he said, "This is the day the Lord hath made; rejoice and be glad in it."

The American Revolution Bicentennial symbol is derived from the stars, stripes and colors of the United States flag.

The symbol takes the form of an American 5-pointed star in white, surrounded by continuous red, white, and blue stripes which form a second star. This double star is symbolic of the two centuries which have passed since the American Revolution.

These colorful stripes also evoke a feeling of festivity and suggest the furled bunting traditionally used in times of celebration throughout the nation.

The symbol is contemporary in design in keeping with the forward-looking goals of the Bicentennial celebration: "to forge a new national commitment, a new spirit for '76, a spirit which will unite the nation in purpose and dedication to the advancement of human welfare as it moves into its third century." The Nineteen Seventy Six ARGUS Editors would like to express their deepest appreciation to the patrons for their generous contributions.

The editors supplied a lot of time and effort to put this book together, but without the great financial support of our local businesses and industries, this book would not have been possible. Although the cost of producing the yearbook has risen, the patrons have continued to supply the ARGUS with money.

We, the ARGUS Editors, would again like to thank all of our patrons and we hope you will continue to support the ARGUS in the future.

An Ending—Yet a Beginning

As the last pages of this book serve as an end, graduation also serves as an end to our lives as students at H.A.H.S. Graduation serves as an end but also as a beginning. We must now face the future with its new situations. We have goals to accomplish and dreams to make come true.

We have walked the halls of this school many times in the past four years. Memories of the good times, and even the bad ones, fill our minds as we pass through these halls for the last few times. Those memories will always be special to each one of us.

One of the hardest parts of this ending is leaving all of our friends that we have grown to know and love. It will be hard to say good-by to them, but we all must step in new directions. Those we have laughed with and cried with will never be forgotten.

And so as this chapter of our lives is concluded, we say farewell to all at H.A.H.S. We must now move on to other chapters in the book of our lives.
